“Liberate, Not Legislate”: Huntsville’s Queer Community Holds Rally for Queer Rights

WHO: The Alabama Trans Rights Action Coalition (ALTRAC), Read Freely Alabama, League of Women Voters (LWV) Alabama, North Alabama Democratic Socialists of America (DSA), Tennessee Valley Progressive Alliance (TVPA), and other local organizers.

WHAT: Volunteer organizers in the queer (LGBTQIA) community of the Tennessee Valley have come together to hold a rally to encourage the community to engage in legislative contact regarding the flurry of bills introduced this year with the purpose of eroding the rights of queer people in Alabama. A similar rally will be held in Mobile on Friday, February 23.

WHERE: Big Spring Park East

WHEN: Saturday, February 24, 1:00pm

VISUALS: The rally will feature a lineup of speakers from the community as well as musical performers, similar to last year’s “Liberate, Not Legislate” rally.

ABOUT ALTRAC: The Alabama Trans Rights Action Coalition is an entirely volunteer-run organization founded in Alabama. Its mission is to build a better future for queer and transgender people in Alabama by creating resources and tools to help people be engaged politically and to effectively connect with their legislators.
